3. All resolutions and matters included in the meeting agenda must be discussed and voted on at the Annual General Meeting.

Article 16. Exercise of the right to attend a General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Shareholders, or authorized representatives of shareholders who are organizations, may directly attend the meeting or authorize one or more other individuals or organizations to attend the meeting, or attend and vote by one of the methods specified in Clause 6, Article 13 of this Charter and the Law on Enterprises.

2. The authorization of individuals or organizations to represent shareholders at the Annual General Meeting as stipulated in Clause 1 of this Article must be in writing. The Power of Attorney must be prepared in accordance with civil law and must clearly state the name of the authorizing shareholder, the name of the authorized individual or organization, the number of shares authorized, the content of the authorization, the scope of authorization, the duration of authorization, and the signatures of both the Principal and the Proxy. The authorized person attending the Annual General Meeting must submit the Power of Attorney when registering to attend the meeting. In case of sub-authorization, the meeting participant must also present the original Power of Attorney from the shareholder or the authorized representative of the shareholder (if not previously registered with the Company).

3. The voting ballot of the authorized person attending the meeting within the scope of authorization remains valid in the following cases:

a. The authorizing person has died, is restricted in civil capacity, or has lost their civil capacity;

b. The grantor has revoked the authorization;

c. The grantor has revoked the authority of the grantor.

This clause does not apply if the Company receives notice of any of the above events before the opening of the Annual General Meeting or before the meeting is reconvened.

Article 17. Changes to Rights

1. Changes or revocations of special rights associated with a class of preferred shares shall take effect when approved by shareholders representing 65% or more of the total voting rights of all shareholders present at the meeting. A resolution of the Annual General Meeting concerning adverse changes to the rights and obligations of shareholders holding preferred shares shall only be adopted if approved by at least 75% of the total number of preferred shares of that class present at the meeting, or by at least 75% of the total number of preferred shares of that class in case of a resolution adopted by written ballot.

2. The holding of a meeting of shareholders holding a class of preferred shares to approve the aforementioned change of rights shall only be valid if there are at least two shareholders (or their authorized representatives) holding at least one-third of the par value of the issued shares of that class. If the required number of delegates is not present as stated above, the meeting shall be rescheduled within the following 30 days, and those holding shares of that class (regardless of the number of people and shares) present in person or through authorized representatives shall be considered to have met the required number of delegates. At the meetings of shareholders holding the aforementioned preferred shares, those holding shares of that class present in person or through representatives may request a secret ballot. Each share of the same class has equal voting rights at the aforementioned meetings.

3. The procedures for conducting such separate meetings shall be carried out in accordance with the provisions of Articles 19, 20 and 21 of the Charter.

4. Unless otherwise stipulated in the share issuance terms, special rights associated with preferred shares concerning some or all matters relating to the distribution of profits or assets of the Company shall not be altered when the Company issues additional shares of the same class.

Article 18. Convening the Annual General Meeting, meeting agenda and notice of the Annual General Meeting

1. The Board of Directors shall convene the Annual General Meeting or the annual and extraordinary Annual General Meeting. The Board of Directors shall convene an extraordinary Annual General Meeting in the cases stipulated in Clause 3, Article 14 of the Charter.

2. The person convening the Annual General Meeting must perform the following tasks:

a. Prepare a list of shareholders eligible to participate and vote at the Annual General Meeting. The list of shareholders entitled to attend a General Meeting of Shareholders shall be prepared based on the Company's shareholder register and securities holder register, no more than 10 days before the invitation is sent. The Company must disclose information about preparing the list within the time limit prescribed by the Securities Law;

b. Prepare the meeting agenda and content;

c. Prepare documents for the meeting;

d. Draft resolutions of the Annual General Meeting according to the planned content of the meeting;

e. Determine the time and place of the meeting;

f. Notify and send notices of the Annual General Meeting to all shareholders entitled to attend;

g. Other tasks serving the General Meeting.

3. Notices of the Annual General Meeting shall be sent to all shareholders by secure means and simultaneously published on the Company's website and the State Securities Commission, and the stock exchange where the Company's shares are listed or registered for trading. The person convening the Annual General Meeting must send a notice of meeting to all shareholders on the List of Shareholders entitled to attend the meeting at least 21 days before the opening date of the meeting (calculated from the date the notice is duly sent or transmitted). The agenda of the Annual General Meeting and documents related to the issues to be voted on at the meeting shall be sent to shareholders and/or posted on the Company's website. In cases where documents are not sent with the notice of the Annual General Meeting, the notice of meeting must clearly state the link to all meeting documents so that shareholders can access them, including:

a. Meeting agenda and documents to be used in the meeting;

b. List and detailed information of candidates in case of election of Members of Board of Directors and Member of the Supervisory Boardy Members of Board of Directors;

c. Voting ballot;

d. Draft resolution for each item on the meeting agenda;

e. Form for appointing authorized representatives to attend the meeting.

4. Shareholders or groups of shareholders as specified in Clause 2, Article 12 of this Charter have the right to propose issues to be included in the agenda of the Annual General Meeting. Proposals must be in writing and must be sent to the Company at least three (03) working days before the opening date of the Annual General Meeting. Proposals must include the shareholder's full name, contact address, nationality and personal legal document number for individual shareholders; and the name, enterprise identification number or legal document number and head-office address for institutional shareholders; the number and type of shares held by that shareholder, and the content of the proposal to be included in the meeting agenda.

5. The person convening the Annual General Meeting has the right to reject proposals related to Clause 4 of this Article in the following cases:

a. The proposal is submitted improperly according to Clause 4 of this Article;

b. At the time of the proposal, the shareholder or group of shareholders does not hold at least 5% of the ordinary shares as specified in Clause 2, Article 12 of this Charter;

c. The issue of the proposal is not within the scope of the Annual General Meeting' authority to discuss and approve;

d. Other cases as prescribed by law and this Charter.

6. The person convening the Annual General Meeting must accept and include the proposal stipulated in Clause 4 of this Article in the proposed agenda and content of the meeting, except as stipulated in Clause 5 of this Article; the proposal is officially added to the agenda and content of the meeting if approved by Shareholders.

Article 19. Conditions for holding the Annual General Meeting

1. The Annual General Meeting shall be held when the number of shareholders attending represents at least 51% of the voting shares.

2. If the first meeting does not meet the conditions for holding as stipulated in Clause 1 of this Article, a notice of the second meeting shall be sent within 30 days from the date of the first planned meeting. The second Annual General Meeting shall be held when the number of shareholders attending represents 33% or more of the total voting shares.

3. If the second meeting does not meet the conditions for holding as stipulated in Clause 2 of this Article, a notice of the third meeting must be sent within (20) days from the date of the second planned meeting. The third Annual General Meeting shall be held regardless of the total number of voting shares of the attending shareholders.

Article 20. Procedures for conducting meetings and voting at the Annual General Meeting

1. Before the meeting commences, the Company must carry out the shareholder registration procedure and continue registration until all shareholders entitled to attend the meeting have registered, following this procedure:

a. When registering shareholders, the Company issues each shareholder or authorized representative a voting card, which includes the registration number, the shareholder's full name, the authorized representative's full name, and the shareholder's voting number. The Annual General Meeting discusses and votes on each item on the agenda. Voting is conducted by approval, disapproval and abstention votes. At the meeting, the voting cards in favor of the resolution are collected first, followed by those against the resolution. Finally, the total number of approval or disapproval votes is counted to make a decision. The results of the vote count are announced by the Chairman immediately before the meeting adjourns. The General Meeting elects those responsible for counting or supervising the vote count as proposed by the Chairman. The number of members of the Vote Counting Committee is decided by the Annual General Meeting Pursuant to the proposal of the meeting Chairman;

b. Shareholders, authorized representatives of shareholders who are organizations, or authorized persons arriving after the meeting has commenced have the right to register immediately and then have the right to participate and vote at the meeting immediately after registration. The Chairman is not responsible for stopping the meeting to allow late-arriving shareholders to register, and the validity of previously voted items remains unchanged.

2. The election of the Chairman, Secretary, and Vote Counting Committee is regulated as follows:

a. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall preside over or authorize another member of the Board of Directors to preside over the Annual General Meeting convened by the Board of Directors. In the event that the Chairman is absent or temporarily incapacitated, the remaining members of the Board of Directors shall elect one of them to preside over the meeting by majority vote. If no Chairman is elected, the Head of the Member of the Supervisory Board shall direct the Annual General Meeting to elect a Chairman from among those present, with the person receiving the highest number of votes becoming the Chairman;

b. Except as stipulated in point a of this clause, the person signing the minutes convening the Annual General Meeting shall direct the Annual General Meeting to elect a Chairman, with the person receiving the highest number of votes becoming the Chairman;

c. The Chairman shall appoint one or more people to serve as meeting secretaries;

d. The Annual General Meeting shall elect one or more people to the Vote Counting Committee as proposed by the Chairman.

3. The agenda and content of the meeting must be approved by Shareholders at the opening session. The agenda must clearly and specifically define the time allocated to each item on the agenda.

4. The presiding officer of the meeting has the right to take necessary and reasonable measures to conduct the Annual General Meeting in an orderly manner, in accordance with the approved agenda, and reflecting the wishes of the majority of attendees:

a) Arranging seating at the meeting venue;

b) Ensuring the safety of all persons present at the meeting venues;

c) Facilitating the attendance (or continued attendance) of shareholders at the meeting. The person convening the Annual General Meeting has the full right to change the above measures and apply all necessary measures. These measures may include issuing entry passes or using other alternative methods.

5. The Annual General Meeting shall discuss and vote on each item on the agenda. Voting is conducted by vote in favor, against, and abstention. The results of the vote count are announced by the Chairman immediately before the meeting adjourns.

6. Shareholders or their authorized representatives who arrive after the meeting has commenced may still register and have the right to vote immediately after registration; in this case, the validity of any previously voted-on items remains unchanged.

7. The convener or Chairman of the Annual General Meeting has the following rights:

a) To require all attendees to undergo security checks or other lawful and reasonable security measures;

b) To request the competent authority to maintain order at the meeting; to expel those who do not comply with the Chairman's authority, intentionally disrupt order, hinder the normal progress of the meeting, or fail to comply with security checks from the Annual General Meeting.

8. The Chairman has the right to postpone the Annual General Meeting that has reached the maximum number of registered attendees for no more than 3 working days from the scheduled opening date, and may only postpone or change the meeting location in the following cases:

a) The meeting location does not have enough convenient seating for all attendees;

b) The communication facilities at the meeting location do not ensure that shareholders can participate, discuss, and vote;

c) Attendees obstruct or disrupt order, posing a risk of the meeting not being conducted fairly and legally.

9. If the Chairman postpones or suspends the Annual General Meeting contrary to the provisions of Clause 8 of this Article, the Annual General Meeting shall elect another person from among the attendees to replace the Chairman and conduct the meeting until its conclusion; all resolutions passed at that meeting shall be effective and enforceable.

10. In cases where the Company applies modern technology to organize the Annual General Meeting through online meetings, the Company is responsible for ensuring that shareholders can attend and vote by electronic voting or other electronic means in accordance with the Law on Enterprises, the Securities Law and the Internal Regulations on Corporate Governance.

Article 21. Conditions for the adoption of a Resolution of the Annual General Meeting

1. A resolution on the following matters shall be adopted if it is approved by shareholders representing 65% or more of the total voting shares of all shareholders attending and voting at the meeting, except where otherwise provided by the Law on Enterprises:

a. Type of shares and total number of shares of each type;

1. Changes in industry, profession, and business sector;

c. Changes in the Company's organizational and management structure;

d. Investment projects or sales of assets with a value of 35% or more of the total asset value recorded in the Company's most recent financial statement;

e. Reorganization or dissolution of the Company.

2. Resolutions are adopted when approved by shareholders holding more than 51% of the total voting shares of all shareholders attending and voting at the meeting, except in the case specified in Clause 1 of this Article and in other cases provided by the Law on Enterprises.

3. Resolutions of the Annual General Meeting adopted by 100% of the total voting shares are legal and effective even if the procedures for convening the meeting and adopting the resolution violate the provisions of the Law on Enterprises and the Company's Charter.

Article 22. Authority and Procedure for Obtaining Shareholder Opinions in Writing to Approve Resolutions of the Annual General Meeting

The authority and procedure for obtaining shareholder opinions in writing to approve decisions of the Annual General Meeting shall be carried out in accordance with the following regulations:

1. The Board of Directors may seek shareholders' written opinions to pass resolutions on matters within the authority of the General Meeting of Shareholders, including but not limited to the matters specified in Clause 2, Article 147 of the Law on Enterprises and Clause 2, Article 15 of this Charter, at any time when it considers this necessary in the Company's interests.

2. The Board of Directors must prepare Voting Ballots, draft resolutions of the Annual General Meeting, explanatory documents for the draft resolutions, and send them to all shareholders with voting rights at least 10 days before the deadline for returning the Voting Ballots. The requirements and method of sending Voting Ballots and accompanying documents shall be carried out in accordance with Clause 3, Article 18 of the Charter.

3. The Voting Ballot must contain the following main contents:

a. Name, registered office address, Business Registration Certificate No.;

b. Purpose of obtaining opinions;

c. The full name, contact address, nationality, and legal document number of the individual shareholder; the name, Business Registration Certificate Number or legal document number of the organization, and the Headquarters address of the organization shareholder; or the full name, contact address, nationality, and legal document number of the individual representative of the organization shareholder; the number of shares of each class and the number of voting rights of the shareholder;

d. The issue requiring a vote to be passed;

e. Voting options including "agree," "disagree," and "no opinion" for each issue requiring a vote;

f. The deadline for returning the completed Voting Ballot to the Company;

g. The full name and signature of the Chairman of the Board of Directors.

4. Shareholders may send the completed Voting Ballot to the Company by mail, fax, or email as follows:

a. In case of mailing, the answered ballot must be signed by the individual shareholder, the authorized representative, or the legal representative of the corporate shareholder. The ballot sent to the Company must be enclosed in a sealed envelope, and no one is allowed to open it before the vote count;

b. In case of faxing or emailing, the ballot sent to the Company must be kept confidential until the vote count;

c. Ballots sent to the Company after the deadline specified in the ballot content, or that have been opened in case of mailing or disclosed in case of faxing or email, are invalid. Unsent ballots are considered non-voting ballots.

5. The Board of Directors will count the votes and prepare a vote count report in the presence of the Member of the Supervisory Board or a shareholder who does not hold a management position in the Company. The vote count report must include the following main contents:

a. Name, registered office address, Business Registration Certificate Number;

b. The purpose and issues requiring consultation for decision-making;

c. The number of shareholders and the total number of votes cast, distinguishing between valid and invalid votes, and the method of submitting ballots, along with an appendix listing participating shareholders;

d. The total number of approval, disapproval and abstention votes for each issue;

e. Issues that have been approved;

f. The full name and signature of the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the legal representative of the Company, the vote counting member of the Supervisory Board, and the vote counter.

The members of the Board of Directors, the vote counter, and the vote counting member of the Supervisory Board shall be jointly responsible for the honesty and accuracy of the vote counting minutes; and jointly responsible for any damages arising from decisions made due to dishonest or inaccurate vote counting.

6. The vote count minutes and resolutions must be sent to shareholders within 15 days from the date the vote count is completed. Sending the vote count minutes and resolutions may be replaced by posting them on the Company's website within 24 hours from the time the vote count is completed.

7. The completed ballots, vote count minutes, the full text of the approved resolutions, and related documents accompanying the ballots must be kept at the Company's Headquarters.

8. Resolutions adopted by written shareholder consultation must be approved by shareholders representing at least 51% of the total voting shares and have the same validity as decisions adopted at the Annual General Meeting.

Article 23. Resolutions and Minutes of the Annual General Meeting

1. The Annual General Meeting must be recorded in minutes and may be audio-recorded or recorded and stored in other electronic forms. Minutes must be prepared in Vietnamese, and may also be prepared in a foreign language, containing the following main contents:

a. Name, registered office address, and Business Registration Certificate Number;
